v.	) NO. 3:21-CV-00791
MEHARRY MEDICAL COLLEGE,	) JUDGE RICHARDSON
Defendant.	)
	)

Pending before the Court is the Plaintiff's motion (Doc. No. 42, "Motion") to ascertain the status of the pending motion for summary judgment (Doc. No. 19). The Motion is well-taken and

ORDER

The Court is aware of the pending motion for summary judgment, and indeed it is on the metaphorical front burner of the undersigned, who expects that a decision on it will be issued soon (measured in weeks rather than months). If, after resolution of that motion, the case remains pending, the parties may move for a Rule 16 conference with the Magistrate Judge as they see fit. The parties alternatively may move for a Rule 16 conference with the Magistrate Judge even prior to the resolution of the motion, should they see fit to do so.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

is GRANTED.
